"WATER OUGHT TO BE PURE"--JOHNSON

SANITARY ENGINEER HERE TODAY EXPLAINS PURIFICATION

LARGE SUPPLY ON HAND

At All Times—Waterworks Day Is Observed—An Explanation Of Waterworks System

"With the equipment in use, proper supervision and due care by the water superintendent and the control laboratory at the College, the city of Maryville ought to be provided with a safe water supply." This was the statement made this morning by Scott Johnson, sanitary engineer of the State Board of Health, who is here today to take tests of the water and to explain this afternoon to those who visit the plant the process that is used in the purification of the water at the city pumping station.

Mr. Johnson said that this was his opinion from a hasty inspection of the plant this morning. "I will no know whether the water is absolutely pure until tests have been made of the water at the laboratories at Jefferson City. A report of the water used by the city of Maryville will be made to the Mayor next week by the State Board of Health after the tests have been made," Mr. Johnson concluded.

The inspection by the public this afternoon of the waterworks system and the fire reserve well was really an eye-opener to many as to what Maryville possesses in the way of an ample and sanitary supply of water and proper facilities to pump a sufficient amount to meet all emergencies that might arise.

The pumping station and reserve well, as they now stand, represent an investment of $150,000, or the amount of bonds that have been voted for the installation of the system. Since 1919 the waterworks plant has been in the process of improvement and the last finishing touches have been completed just recently, that of giving the buildings and fence at the pumping station a coat of paint.

Let us take a trip with the Mayor, W. O. Garrett, who will act as a guide and explain in an effective manner some of the processes and facilities the city of Maryville has developed and is now using to provide its citizens with pure water. The first stop of this tour of inspection is made at the pumping house proper, which is located close to the 102 river on the several-acre tract of land directly east of the city not far from the city limits, which belongs to the city of Maryville.

The Pumping Station.

Before stepping inside the door of the pump house a cement intake is pointed out in the river, which is seen jetting out of the water immediately north of the dam. Through this intake all of the water is first drawn. Attention is next called to the pumping engines in the pump house, two steam and two electric engines. The steam pump which happened to be in use at this moment has been renovated recently, the Mayor explaining that it had not been in use for five or six years, and this fall the city administration spent close to $700 for its repair, and that it is now working perfectly. A new engine that would do the work which the repaired machine is now performing would cost nearly $9,000. Each steam engine has a boiler to furnish steam. They are used interchangeably, one being kept in constant reserve. They both develop 100 horse power. Either of these steam pumps are so arranged that they can be used to draw water from the intake or to pump water into the mains that lead to the water tower and are capable of pumping 750 gallons a minute.

Supply in Reserve Lakes.

It was explained that the two electric pumps are utilized to pump water from the river into the reserve lakes, north of the pumping station. The small electric pump is a 15 horsepower motor and it is called the low lift pump, only having to lift the water 10 feet from the river to the pump house. The big electric pump develops 100 horsepower. It is used also to pump water to the water tower. It has a lift capacity of 410 feet. At present the water is pumped only about ten or eleven hours a day. The length of time, of course, varies with the season, more water being consumed during the summer months. The engineers at the plant have fixed the steam boilers and engines so that the exhaust steam is

Thanksgiving!

The day of Thanksgiving is here once more.

For the sixtieth time in the history of the American Republic, families will gather around the feast table tomorrow, paying tribute to the mercies of God. A glorious feast day it will be! American citizens paying homage to a generous God!

The annual holiday originated in New England in 1621, after the first harvest of the Plymouth settlement. The colonists gathered together to offer up prayers of thanksgiving for the bounteous harvest of the past year.

But will Maryville citizens thank God tomorrow for His mercies of the past. Or will tomorrow be simply a feast day, brimmed full of turkey, cranberries, pumpkin pie and the like, with no thought of the Great Provider?

Will the citizens of our town think of Thanksgiving as merely a holiday and the satisfaction of hunger?

Thanksgiving must mean more than this. It must, indeed, be a day of thankfulness for all the good things of life and a reconsecration to Him who makes them possible.

Americans, of all the people of the world, should feel really thankful tomorrow. Living in an age of chaos, when the people of the world are struggling for a solution of international problems, Americans should thank God they are living in the freest and greatest nation in all the world.

And so let tomorrow be a great day of Thanksgiving for all of us. Let us enjoy this great feast day, and pay homage to Him who made it possible.

GRIFFIN HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

BY THE OMAHA AUTHORITIES IN DEATH OF M'ARDLE

IS WELL KNOWN HERE

Was Formerly a Resident of This County and Hauled "Booze" from St. Joseph to Omaha

James Griffin who is held by Omaha authorities on a charge of murder is well known here by the authorities and some of the residents of this county. Griffin, it is said, formerly resided in the county, having been born in the southeastern part of the county.

At one time Griffin, the authorities here say, had a "booze" line between St. Joseph and Omaha. During the term of Sheriff Dowden, 800 pints of liquor belonging to Griffin, was found on the McGettigan farm, northwest of Maryville.

The following about the charge which Griffin is being held is from the Omaha World-Herald:

James "Jimmy" Griffin, Omaha, and Jesse Banker, alias Banks, and "Bill" Welter, both of Nebraska City, are held on first degree murder charges as the result of a coroner's inquest Monday afternoon at the John A. Gentlemen mortuary into the death of Henry "Hank" McArdle, killed in a rum war in Omaha Friday afternoon and whose body later was found in a burning straw stack near Papillion.

The jury found that Griffin killed McArdle by shooting during an attempted kidnaping. It recommended that Banks and Welter be held with him for trial for the part they played in the fight and the alleged spiriting away and burning of the body.

A tense atmosphere pervaded the inquest. The three suspects, handcuffed to detectives and carefully guarded, were ushered into a room crowded with men and women, and fringed by a crowd of rough looking men.

None of the suspects was placed on the stand. Asked by Beal if they wanted to testify, Banks and Welter said, "No." Griffin said, "It's up to our attorneys."

The prisoners, haggard and showing the effects of a prolonged "grilling," sat motionless throughout the investigation. Griffin at times slept, wakening with a start now and then as his name was mentioned. Banks and Welter sat owl-like and seemingly emotionless.

Griffin's and Welter's wives sat close to them.

Nothing new of any great importance was brought out in the testimony. Beal said after the investigation that the state has a number of witnesses held in reserve for the trial, which he announced would be held at the earliest possible date to prevent "possible tampering."

M. E. Sunday School Pledge Nearly Paid

Nine hundred dollars of the $1000 pledge that was made to the Ensworth Hospital in St. Joseph by the classes and departments of the Sunday School of the First M. E. Church has been paid. This report was made by the treasurer of the Sunday School at the regular monthly Sunday School board meeting last night in the pastor's study at the church. The Rev. C. C. James presided at the meeting. Six of the classes that made pledges have paid in full and the remaining classes will pay their pledges soon.

Christmas plans were made at the meeting for the observance of a White Christmas.

Several new Sunday School teachers were approved by the board.

Miss Eda Bentley will go to Ravenwood this evening to spend Thanksgiving with realtives. She will be a guest at a Thanksgiving dinner given tomorrow by Mr. and Mrs. M. Goodson.

NEW AMERICANISM MUST BE CREATED

SAYS DR. GEORGE E. FRANCIS, LYCEUM LECTURER, LAST NIGHT

SHOULD OBEY ALL LAWS

To Laugh At Eighteenth Amendment Is To Laugh At Constitution Of United States, He Declares

Pointing out a number of ills of the American nation and offering but one solution—the application of the Golden Rule—Dr. George E. Francis, lecturing on "100 per cent Americanism" at the First M. E. Church last night, appealed to his audience for a greater understanding of American ideals and traditions.

This was the second number of the lyceum course, given under the auspices of the Wesleyan and Busy Men's Bible classes of the First M. E. Church.

"The trouble with America is not with our political parties but with the folks that make up our nation," the speaker declared at the outset of his address. "We must Americanize the thinking of our so-called American people, as there are hundreds of them who do not know what it means to be an American."

The lecturer said that the first step in the program to make better Americans is to Americanize the thinking of the American people. A new birth of American spirit is needed in this country, he said.

"First of all, this American spirit must respect our laws," Dr. Francis declared. "Whenever men live together, they must be organized and must have a sovereign. But there never has been a time in the history of America when law was at such low ebb as it is now. If we are going to pass on to posterity a greater Amer-

Unfavorable Prospects White Thanksgiving

Mercury Hovers Between 30 and 35 and Weather Bureau Promises About Same for Tomorrow

Kansas City, Nov. 28—Prospects for a white Thanksgiving day here today looked as pale as the turkey gobbler who is living his last twenty-four hours.

The mercury was hovering between 30 and 35 degrees, with a chilly north wind, and the weather bureau said the offering would be the same tomorrow.

However, indications were that this would be Kansas City's greatest Thanksgiving. Sellers of food and holiday specialties declare this year's sales will eclipse last year's by a substantial margin.

"Turkeys are in great demand this year," Armour & Co., officials said this morning, 'because they are about 20 cents a pound cheaper than last Thanksgiving."

Ticket Scalpers Busy at Lawrence, Ks., Today

But Dr. F. C. Allen, Athletic Director, Says Federal Agents Will Be On Job to Arrest Guilty

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 28—University of Kansas athletic officials will make a request today that federal officers be sent to Lawrence to check wholesale ticket scalping who threaten to mar the Missouri-Kansas grid classic here tomorrow, Dr. F. C. Allen, athletic director said this morning.

The price of a ticket is $2, but it is understood blocks have been purchased and their owners are holding them for exhorbitant prices, ranging from three for $10 to four for $25.

Ticket scalpers are subject to a fine of not more than $100 under a federal statute of 1921.

Miss Halcyon Hooker will come tonight from Lincoln, Neb., to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hooker. Miss Hooker is a senior at the University School of Music.

No Maryville Papers Published Tomorrow

Scores Of Football Games Will Be Received By Democrat-Forum—Football Fans Invited Here

There will be no issues of the Democrat-Forum or Maryville Tribune tomorrow on account of Thanksgiving day.

However, football scores may be obtained at this office tomorrow afternoon. Quarter-by-quarter accounts of the Maryville-Maysville and Bear Cat-Tarkio game will be received as well as a radio account of the Missouri-Kansas game at Lawrence. Harry C. Todd of the Hanamo Telephone Co. will have a radio in front of the Democrat-Forum office. Other football scores will be received tomorrow night.

GRIDIRON SEASON CLOSES TOMORROW

FOR COLLEGE BEAR CATS AND M. H. S. SPOOFHOUNDS

MANY MARYVILLE FANS

Will Go To St. Joseph and Tarkio—Democrat-Forum To Give Football Results

Thanksgiving Day raises the curtain for the last scene for the football activities of the Maryville teams for the 1923 season, and it is with deep regret to the loyal supporters of the Spoofhound and Bear Cat elevens that the stage where either of these teams will play the grand finale could not be on the College gridiron. As the football season rolls around, the victories and defeats that the High School and College gridsters have participated are but small in consequence to the annual Thanksgiving games. If the Turkey Day battles can be celebrated in victory, then the season has been a success.

It is with such thoughts in their minds that the diminutive pigskin luggers of Coach Ebert will sally forth at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the Western League Park in St. Joseph to meet the mighty players of Maysville High School for the championship of Northwest Missouri. With a memory of having fallen before these rivals once before this season the Spoofhounds have but one thought, to win and win in a sportsmanlike manner in order to wipe clear the slate and bring to Maryville once again the honors of having the cleanest and best football team that can be produced in Northwest Missouri.

Harold Ebert, coach, Captain Ogden

J. E. Holt Believes in Dem.-Forum Service

Says Advertising Campaign In Last Three Weeks Resulted In Sale Of Thirty Light Plants

The J. E. Holt Electric Co., has sold thirty complete Delco light plants in the last three weeks. This is a full carload shipment aggregating 37,000 pounds.

These sales are the result of a newspaper advertising sales campaign which Mr. Holt has conducted in the last three weeks.

Mr. Holt said this morning that at least 75 per sent of these sales resulted from his series of advertisements in the Democrat-Forum.

"Newspaper advertising is essential to any business," Mr. Holt said, "and this big sale has certainly convinced me that Democrat-Forum advertising is the best possible investment for any business man in Nodaway County. I am certainly delighted with the results it brought me."

Warehouses Destroyed by Fire in Hopkins

Spreads To Sheds Of Lumber Co.—Supplies Of Hanamo Telephone Co. Burned

Warehouses owned by the Bowman estate and used by the Hanamo Telephone Co. at Hopkins burned about 8 o'clock last night. Sheds adjoining, owned by the Sheley Lumber Co., caught on fire. Flames were extinguished by the Hopkins Fire Department. The warehouse of the Bowman estate is north of the Wolfers Mercantile Co. in the city of Hopkins. The damage to the buildings has not been ascertained. The Hanamo Telephone Co., keeps its supplies in the warehouse and these were all destroyed. The origin of the fire is not known.

MAKES APPEAL FOR FARMERS' RELIEF

LETTER SENT TO WHITE HOUSE BY KANSAS LIVESTOCK COM.

SOLUTION SUGGESTED

Revision Of Federal Reserve Bank Law, Esch-Cummins Act, Repeal and Others Asked

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 28—Kansas today appealed directly to President Coolidge and members of Congress to come to the aid of the farmers who were characterized as "discouraged and despondent."

The plea for relief was in the form of a letter addressed to the White House by J. H. Mercer, Kansas state livestock commissioner.

Methods were suggested by which the Kansas farmers might be lifted from the mire. These included a revision of the Federal Reserve Bank laws, enabling banks to lower interest rates to farmers, reduction of railroad freight rates on commodities, repeal of the Esch-Cummins act, and a federal guarantee of $1.50 a bushel forall surplus wheat raised in 1924.

Klan Membership Does Not Prevent Service

Judge Henry Westhues At Jefferson City Rules Today When Liquor Case Comes Up For Trial

Jefferson City, Nov. 28—Circuit Court Judge Henry Westhues here today refused to disqualify Claude Bartlett and Brad Case from serving on a jury trying a liquor case, when they admitted membership in the Ku Klux Klan while questioned by the defense attorneys when the jury was being empannelled. The defense attorneys moved for their disqualification on the grounds that the Klan was opposed to all soft drink parlors.

Stegerwald Has Failed to Form New Cabinet

Former Chancellor Stresemann May Again Be Given Power To Build New Government

Berlin, Nov. 28—Chancellor designate Stegerwald's chances of forming a new cabinet were wrecked this afternoon by the Nationalists who are insisting upon a new policy toward France, while the Democrats are insisting that the policy of former Chancellor Stresemann be continued in effect.

It was considered likely that Stegerwald would formally abandon his efforts to form a new government this afternoon.

In this event, President Ebert will again charge Herr Stresemann with the task of constituting a new government, giving him authority to dissolve the Reichstag.

Barry Elected Head of the DeMolay Club

Raymond Barry has been elected president of the Maryville DeMolay Club. He was chosen at the first regular meeting of the club which was held last night in the DeMolay Club rooms, which are above the offices of Dr. F. M. Ryan on Buchanan street.

Other officers of the club that were elected are:

George T. Smith, vice-president; Gordon Roach, secretary-treasurer; board of managers: Donald Dowell, Morris Chick and Marion Gile. Another meeting of the club will be held in the near future when a program will be outlined.

William Geist has completed a large charcoal picture of M. A. Peery one of the advisors of the local DeMolay chapter, and this picture will be placed in the club rooms.

The club rooms have been re-decorated and will be furnished throughout with lodge-room equipment, such as rocking chairs, tables, pool tables and magazine shelves. The color scheme will be in green and white. The fireplaces will be rebuilt.

Within a few weeks, there will be a formal opening of the club rooms. There are fifty charter members of the DeMolay Club.

Mrs. Mary Wyatt Moore left this morning for Fort Scott, Kan., where she will visit relatives.

Does The Tariff Help The Consumer?

Subject for discussion by local Assemblies of Uncle Sam's Voters, Week of November 12-18.

Samuel Adams, Director General, Uncle Sam's Voters, Washington, D. C.

The Democrats claim that the Fordney-McCumber Tariff Bill is costing the American people several billions of dollars a year. The Republicans assert it hasn't any appreciable effect on the cost of living. The question is open.

YES

1. The tariff insures continued employment at fair wages. Consumers are producers, and must be in order to be able to be consumers. The important thing for consumers is continued employment at adequate wages. It is a matter of record that most panics and periods of serious unemployment occurred in this country during periods of low tariff. Three years ago, under the Underwood tariff law, as many as five million people were out of employment in the United States; today the highest estimate of unemployed does not exceed 1,250,000.

2. The tariff yields a substantial revenue. Small consumers pay most of the taxes. The Federal budget amounts to about four billions of dollars a year. The present tariff law will yield this fiscal year probably $550,000,000 to $600,000,000. The total Federal budget cannot be raised by taxes on excess profits, even if they are restored, or by taxes on incomes and inheritance, or even on large landed holdings. There must be some indirect taxation, and a tariff is the best method of securing revenue for the Federal Government indirectly. It is infinitely preferable to a sales tax, which would be a most grievous burden upon consumers.

3. Except for the tariff, foreign countries would flood American markets with manufactured goods. Labor abroad is working very cheaply and at wages which do not permit anything like an American standard of living, in the effort to capture world markets lost during the war. A tariff equal to the difference between the cost of production here and abroad is necessary to keep American industries going, and few, if any of the items in the present tariff law much exceed such alleged differences in the cost of manufacture in the United States and abroad.

4. The tariff enables our Government to tax the profits of foreign manufacturers. It is admitted that foreign manufacturers have to pay a large share of the tariff tax. Without such a tariff tax they could not be compelled to pay anything for the support of our Federal Government, no matter how much goods they sent into this country.

5. The tariff encourages foreign capital to invest in the United States. The expansion of industry, and as a result of commerce in the United States, compels large investment of capital, and the profit of manufacturing industries in the United States encourages investment of foreign capital here.

6. The tariff prevents profiteering in foreign goods. A report on imported merchandise and retail prices prepared by the Treasury Department for the use of the United States Senate last year showed enormous profiteering by domestic retail stores, in foreign goods. The percentage of retail price to landed cost on a pair of ladies' kid gloves, 16 buttons, 2¼ inches, amounted to 477 per cent. The value of these gloves in Germany was 79½ cents; the duty was 37½ cents, and charges of transportation, insurance, freight, etc., 3½ cents, making the landed cost in the United States $1.20½, while the retail price in the United States was $6.95. The percentage of retail price to landed cost on a briar pipe made in England, was 280 per cent. The advance in domestic price over landed price on scores of articles investigated by the Treasury Department ran from 259 per cent to 747 per cent. Where disparity in production cost here and abroad is equalized by tariffs profiteering is checked.

7. The tariff helps national independence and self dependence. Our nation could support at least three times its present population, and should raise or produce here practically everything it needs. The tariff enables new industries to start and encourages development of all of America's resources.

8. The tariff encourages preparedness. Before the war Germany had a practical monopoly of dyestuffs, and the chemicals used in this industry were of inestimable value to her in fighting the war. Americans have started the manufacture of dyestuffs, and the tariff will enable them to continue its manufacture and build up a method of real preparedness which is of vital importance to all the consumers of the nation.

9. The tariff has practically no effect upon prices. Prices are determined by the law of supply and demand, and a tariff would not permit profiteering prices if there were a fair supply of the articles desired. While the price of sugar has fluctuated from 7 to 12 cents during the past year, the duty upon sugar has been the same, showing the tariff does not affect prices.

NO.

1. Consumers can prosper only when production is efficient. A tariff encourages inefficiency and wastefulness in production, because it shuts out active competition. Whatever the degree of protection, that is, whatever the rate of the tariff tax may be, it is paid by the consumer. The United States should produce more of what it can produce efficiently and economically, and export the surplus, which would guarantee a fair price to consumers in this country, and the nation should import what it cannot produce efficiently and economically in this country for the transportation charges from abroad are relatively small.

2. The "difference in the costs of production" is a myth. Costs of production in the United States and abroad fluctuate from week to week and month to month. Efforts to establish the difference in the costs of production have never been successful, and this method creates reliance upon government to protect manufacturers against results of wasteful and inefficient methods of manufacturing. High selling prices of land, and consequent high rents, high interest rates and high freight rates, are factors in costs of production here which should be eliminated, and the competition of foreign goods admitted without a tariff duty will compel manufacturers in the United States to become efficient, with enormous benefits to consumers, in making lower prices possible.

3. Our tariff policy has kept the cost of living constantly rising. Wholesale prices are more than 50 per cent higher than they were in 1913 and about 100 per cent higher than they were from 1901 to 1903. Most of this time a relatively high tariff has been in force. Retail prices always keep above wholesale prices.

4. The tariff does not help wage-earners. The highest wages are paid in industries not protected by a tariff, such as in the building trades, railroading and to machinists and electrical workers. The lowest wages are paid in such highly protected industries as wool and cotton mills. Labor is a small part of the cost of production of manufactured articles. The Fair Tariff League reports that while on all cotton goods the tariff averaged 43.2 per cent, the per cent of wages to the selling price on the product was only 16.3 per cent in 1919. In 1919 wages were only 15.7 per cent of the factory selling price of all silk products, while the duty averaged 42.6 per cent. The Underwood tariff on woolens, the Fair Tariff League states, "averaged, in 1916, 3.16 per cent, being far more than the total payrolls in the mills."

5. The tariff doesn't help the farmers. A tariff on commodities exported does not affect the domestic price. We export from one-half to two-thirds of the cotton raised in the United States, and ordinarily about one-fourth to one-third of the wheat raised here, while farmers are making every effort to increase the export of most other staple farm products excepting sugar, wool and a few others. The tariff is shutting farmers out of foreign markets for their products, but increasing the cost of things they must buy.

6. The tariff gives foreign manufacturers better prices. The tariff enables domestic manufacturers to keep up their prices, and therefore enables foreign manufacturers to secure better prices for their own products sent to this country. A government bounty, or direct payment to manufacturers and to farmers in this country, would be preferable, and more advantageous to American consumers, because it would be paid only to Americans and not to foreigners.

7. The tariff defeats its own purpose if successful. A tariff for revenue only is frankly designed to permit importation of foreign produced goods, to the original cost of which the tariff is added. A protective tariff is similarly intended to put a larger burden upon consumers, and the consumer pays the freight in both cases. Former Congressman Fordney stated, "Whatever duty you put on is for the purpose of bringing the foreign value (price) up to our value."

8. The tariff puts additional costs upon consumers as taxpayers. Tariffs are a prolific cause of war, for wars are primarily caused by competition for foreign markets. A nation with tariffs always maintains, if possible, a large army and a large navy. The United States is spending $630,000,000 this year on its army and navy, or much more than we spent before the World War.

9. Tariff rates are multiplied by dealers in commodities tariff taxed. The manufacturer of every commodity with a tariff tax adds that tax to his price. The wholesaler has to add the tariff tax, plus a profit to himself on his investment, and the brokers and retailers do the same, making a pyramided charge upon all ultimate consumers.

Christmas Hymn

[Old Spanish]

BORN was thy Son, pure Virgin,
Upon that Christmas night;
Among the fowls and cattle
Thou laidst thy Child aright:
For Thee no gold-decked chamber,
For Thee no tapestry,
But only a lowly manger
In Bethlehem we see!
Go we, led by the star, now
To Bethlehem straightway
And humbly let us kneel there
Before the Child to pray.
Let us adore Him gladly
With grateful hearts and pure,
And let us truly love Him,
Salvation to secure!

Holiday Trip His Awakening

By KATHERINE EDELMAN

Cliff Winters Learned a Lesson From Shoppers and Won a Sweetheart

CLIFFORD WINTERS was jealous. He would not have admitted the fact to himself for all the world, but it was quite plain to everyone else, including his little brother of ten.

For five years he had thought of Stella Thompson as his—the thought had never occurred to him that someone else might come along and take her from him. True, he had never come right out like the men in the story books and asked Stella to be his, but surely he thought any girl would have sense enough to know when a man really wanted her. Things had been so pleasant, anyhow, coming and going to Stella's home, that he had put off naming the day, but otherwise, in his mind, the whole thing had been settled.

Now, however, it looked as if Stella was lost to him—that he was out of the running—for Dick Carpenter had come back from the city. Stella seemed to have eyes for him only and Clifford saw very little of her. It seemed as if no matter what time he called he could not find her there—her mother always met him with the same remark: "She just left with Dick," or "Dick and she are in the parlor now."

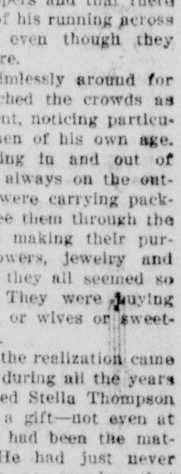
He had just come from there now, after being told that Dick and Stella had gone to town. The jealousy that was getting at his heart grew more bitter each moment, and so much did it possess him that he could not go about his work.

Jumping into his little car again he made his way along the smooth country road until he reached Trenton. There he found that the town was full of Christmas shoppers and that there was little chance of his running across Stella and Dick, even though they should still be there.

He wandered aimlessly around for an hour and watched the crowds as they came and went, noticing particularly the young men of his own age. They were hurrying in and out of stores and nearly always on the outcoming trip they were carrying packages. He could see them through the windows at times making their purchases—candy, flowers, jewelry and other things—and they all seemed so happy about it. They were buying them for mothers, or wives or sweethearts, he thought.

Swift as a flash the realization came to him that never during all the years that he had courted Stella Thompson had he given her a gift—not even at Christmas. What had been the matter with him? He had just never stopped to think—no wonder that Stella had turned from him to Dick Carpenter. What a fool he had been to think that affection could live and thrive with the little thought that he had given it! He wondered if it was too late now to make amends—at least he could make an effort and try.

That evening when he called at the Thompson home and asked for Stella the refusal that Mrs. Thompson was going to utter died upon her lips as she saw the change in him. The easy-going, half-hearted Clifford Winters of the past was gone and in his place was an aggressive, quick-spoken fellow who acted as if he would not be denied. And when Stella herself came along she could only gasp as he placed a large bouquet of roses in her arms, and before she could recover from the surprise which this occasioned Clifford had asked her the all-important question and she had answered "yes."



Clifford always thought through the years that followed that their happiness was due to that holiday trip he made to town, but Stella's mother often smiled to herself as she thought how she used the vain little Carpenter boy to awaken Clifford.

S. T. C.--Warrensburg to Debate Closed Shop

Maryville Home Team To Argue Negative Side—Visiting Team Will Defend Affirmative

The Maryville State Teachers College debating club has completed arrangements for a debate with the Warrensburg College on March 27, on the subject of the principle of the closed shop.

In the agreement the Maryville debaters will defend the negative side of the issue, "Resolved, That the principle of Closed Shop is justified in industries." Another team from the College will go to Warrensburg and debate the affirmative side of the same issue.

It is also agreed that there will not be any judges of the debates at either place, the decision being based on the impression left with the audience by the debates.

The College debate club has been active this fall in debate work, having meetings once a week. Some very able material has been developed, according to Professor Harry A. Miller of the public speaking department.

It is the aim of the club to escure at least one debate with every state teachers College within the school term and debate upon some subject. If possible most of the debates will be held at the local College in connection with the oratorical contest which will be held on March 27. Five of the state Colleges are entered in this event and debates will probably be secured with all of the schools sending representatives.

MISSOURI FACTS FOR MISSOURIANS

One of the picturesque parts of scenic Missouri is Onondaga Park near Bourbon in Crawford County, where is situated Onondaga Cave, one of the largest caverns in the state. Features of this big onyx cave are: Lost River, Natural Bridge, Frost Room, Lily Room, Royal Rotunda, Cathedral Hall, The Chimes, and the Ball Room which is 300 feet long, 100 feet wide and 40 feet high, with floor of onyx.

The oldest continuously worked lead mine in the United States is situated north of Fredericktown in Madison County, this mine being more than 100 years old. Ancient lava rocks nearly 50,000,000 years old are found in this region.

"Bonne Terre" a quaint old town in St. Francois County, was so named by the early French settlers. When they settled at that point they found that the soil was rich in lead and zinc which needed only to be recovered by the ancient "panning" method. So they named the city Bonne Terre or, "good earth."

Missouri's 1923 cotton crop totals 394,000 acres which is an increase of 193,000 acres over last year's crop.

According to The Adventure Magazine, Missouri does not mean "Muddy River" or "Muddy Water" as has been generally believed. The name, which was originally applied to a tribe of Indians which inhabited its banks, literally translated means "Wooden Canoe" or "the people who use wooden canoes."

Ozark canneries used nearly 50,000,000 tin cans to take care of the big 1923 tomato crop. The combined value of the Ozark tomato crop in Missouri and Arkansas totals $6,000,000.

Picturesquely situated in the very heart of America, people with sturdy citizens of the purest American blood and with every natural advantage, Missouri's place in the ranks of statehood will eventually be second to none.

Butler County has a total acreage of 500,000 and there is less than one fourth of it under cultivation. By some geologists it is believed that this county has one of the greatest iron ore deposits in the United States.

Missouri is the fifth cattle state and tenth in milch cows and was twelfth in total value of dairy products in 1919. With Missouri farmers awakening to the fact that our state equals Wisconsin as a dairy state, the prospects are bright for the dairy industry in Missouri.

The history of J. W. Robinson's venture into tobacco culture reads like a fairy tale but it nevertheless is true. In 1919 Mr. Robinson came to Missouri from Kentucky and with his small savings of $500 purchased a farm. A five-acre plot was cleared and planted to tobacco. An unusual yield was recorded that year and Mr. Robinsons's first crop brought a return of $4,200 on the Kentucky market.

Missouri has no state or federal lands available for colonization but there are millions of acres of privately owned land available for purchase on easy terms awaiting the home seeker and agricultural investor.

Killion's Steers Top St. Joseph Market

Killion & Son of this county topped the St. Joseph market on heavy steers yesterday, selling twenty head averaging 1252 pounds at $9.60.

Other Nodaway County sales on the St. Joseph market yesterday:

Joe Ulmer [illegible] forty head of 674 pound steers and heifers at $8.30.

J. F. Brown sold twenty steers averaging 112[illegible] at $8.50.

W. L. Me[illegible] Louis Schulte, J. P. Walkerton, Dwight Hopple, Joe Ulmer, Wray & Davis, M. F. Gray, B. Montgomery and D. W. Lock also had shipments to St. Joseph yesterday.—St. Joseph Stock Yards Journal.

Farm Bureau Films at Martha Washington

R. A. Kinnaird showed the Farm Bureau motion picture films last night at the Martha Washington School. About fifty were present at the meeting. After the films had been shown, G. K. Arney, vocational agricultural instructor at the High School, spoke on "External and Internal Parasites of Chickens." The women of the vicinity served a lunch at the close of the program.

Mr. Kinnaird will show two films at Centenary Church southeast of Graham Friday evening November 30.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Weidner will go to Clarinda, Ia., tonight to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Ansbach.

Clarence Lyle of Skidmore visited in Maryville today.

Will Please Housewives

Housewives will appreciate holders for handling hot dishes and kitchen utensils. They are simply squares made of bright cretonne, padded with woolen cloth. A container for them is provided with a hanger, so that they can be hung up near the kitchen stove.

Poultry Show to Be Held in Tabernacle

The Twenty-third annual poultry show of the Northwest Missouri Poultry Association will be held in the Tabernacle on East Third street instead of in the Armory as has been previously announced. This decision was reached this morning after officials of the Association and the Rev. R. E. Snodgrass met in a conference, and the announcement by Harve England, who will be superintendent of the poultry show. The show is held December 4-7.

A lot of charity would be admired more if it did not strut around.

The one class of people we can't stand are those grouches who say that they have nothing to be thankful for on Thanksgiving. To bump into one makes you all the more thankful that you are not like them.

The observer of the passerby says if you want to see a little man just look at a small town's big man.

Uncle Abner, the town philosopher, says if you intend to do a mean thing it is well to wait until tomorrow.

Speaking of silent partners, how about the average husband?

One of our real estate salesman friends, beg pardon we should have said realtor, says it is easy to sell real estate if you have a ready buyer. (We could sell anything if we had a ready buyer).

Another of the good old time things which has passed away too, a friend at a street hardware store says, is keyring. He says most men carry their keys on a chain or in a leather folder. Day by day we surely are getting more modern.

Scarcely a day goes by but we see some mention of the fortune which was made by a certain song and we wonder why we can't do as well. But the fact is most of us couldn't write anything bad enough to be as big a success as that one was.

We often see a man on easy street loafing, but you can rest assured he did little of it before he got there.

A stranger stopped one of our friends on the street the other day and said, "beg pardon, but haven't I seen you somewhere," "I suspect you have," he replied, "as I have been there."

There is no such thing as "the good old times." That period referred to in this way now was not considered such and the people at that time were referring to some period which has gone before as "the good old times" just as we will be referring to the present by the same phrase in twenty years.

High School Paper Is Considered by Society

The boys' literary society of the High School met this morning for the regular meeting and a program was given. In the contest that is being held between the boys' and girls' societies the boys are forty points ahead due to one on the program being absent. It was also considered at the meeting whether or not the boys' literary society should have a high school paper.

Girls' Literary Society Gives Program

The girls' Literary Society had a good program today at the public school which featured James Whitcomb Riley. The numbers were:

H. S. Faculty Members Will Be Entertained

Bandit Drops Loot as Pedestrians Pursue

Chicago, Nov. 28—A lone bandit held up a bank messenger in South Chicago today, snatching a bag containing currency and valuable papers from his hands, and fled.

The messenger, however, immediately cried out and pedestrians started in pursuit of the robber. Becoming frightened, the latter dropped his loot and escaped in a motor car. The messenger recovered the bag.

Police Get Confession from Alleged Murderer

But Two Youths Are Also Named By Forrez As Astual Assassins Of Station Agent

Chicago, Nov. 28—Four hours of questioning resulted this afternoon, they announced, in a confession from Robert Forrez that cleared up the mysterious murder of Charles Johnson, 60 years old, an elevated railway station agent.

After Forrez's alleged confession, police began search for two youths, the officers claimed Forrez named as the actual assassins of Johnson.

And Old George Will Enjoy Thanksgiving

Manchester, Ia., Man Is Given Back 400 Gallons Of Home-made Wine —Oh Boy!

Manchester, Ia., Nov. 28—Thanksgiving means what it says to George Tommer, who has lived eighty-four years without the assistance of prohibition laws.

Old George will offer up thanks tomorrow with more than visual fervor for 400 gallons of home-made wine recently seized by county officials, will be returned to his cellar by an order issued by the district court today. It was proved beyond doubt that Old George never sold or offered to sell a single drop of the satisfying fluid.

Craig's Application Is Sent Daugherty Today

President Wants To Know His Legal Rights In Granting Pardon To New York Comptroller

Washington, Nov. 28—A formal application for the pardon of Comptroller Craig, now facing a sixty-day jail sentence for contempt of court, was referred by the White House today to the department of justice.

The application was sent to the White House last night by Senator Copeland of New York. President Coolidge directed that it be sent to the department of justice for an opinion as to the President's legal powers and will defer action until Attorney-General Daugherty hands down his decision.

Higginsville Adopts High School Code

Students Say School Success Depends Upon Loyalty and Spirit Of Student Body

The following is taken from C. E. McBride's "Little Lessons in Football" in The Kansas City Star:

At a recent high school football game in Higginsville, Mo., small paper folders, containing the printed "Higginsville High School Code of Ethics" were distributed among the spectators. There are so many fine things in that printed pamphlet that numerous other schools might adopt and profit by the "code" is here reprinted:

Our High School Creed

We believe that the success of our high school depends in a large measure upon the loyalty an dthe spirit of its student body. That type of loyalty which impels us to keep continually in mind the honor and prestige of our school and to guide us in our conduct accordingly. This type of loyalty will cause us to stop and weigh our actions in the light of the influence they may have on the standing of our high school in the community and in the state.

We will uphold our high school by word of mouth and by deed at all times. We will not permit to go unchallenged in our presence a slanderous remork concerning the character of our high school; we will do the right thing by our school. We will not require constant watching on the part of the teachers; our conduct when out of sight of our teachers will not differ from our conduct in their presence; the welfare and success of the school is our success. As nearly as possible we will conduct ourselves as follows:

1. We will prepare our lessons faithfully each day.
2. We will be studious and attentive in the classroom.
3. We will be polite and courteous at all times.
4. We will not be among that class of boys and girls that are afraid they will be criticized if they perform little acts of courtesy for their teachers or for each other. We will respect the wishes and desires of our teachers and make their work as pleasant as possible.
5. We will not mar and deface school furniture or the school building simply because we have a knife or a pencil and the opportunity to do so.
6. We will be quiet and orderly in the halls and will not require constant watching while at leisure.
7. We will not use vulgar or profane language in the toilet rooms or elsewhere when not being watched.
8. We will be sportsmanlike on the playgrounds and maintain high standards of play.
9. We will cultivate the best manners possible for the classrooms, the corridors, the street, the playground, the home, the party. We feel that by the exercise of good manners we can raise the prestige of our school.
10. We will be dependable at all times. We believe that dependableness is one of the highest qualities that a boy or girl can possess. This quality manifested by us will win the confidence and admiration of all with whom we come in contact.

Mexican Boy May not Have Placed Bomb

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 28—Two boys are being held today by the sheriff's office in the belief that they instead of Juan Morales, San Antonio newsboy under indictment, may have placed the bomb which blew J. A. Barnes and his 7-year-old son to bits in their Corpus Christi home.

The boys were taken into custody by officials following their visit to a railway station here. They had told persons that they, and not Morales, had fixed the bomb.

Fire Damages House on W. First Street

About $150 damage was done by fire to the house of Jesse Douglas, 316 West First street. The fire department was called at 11:20 this morning and extinguished the flames. A flue had burned out and fire spread to one corner of the house in the roof. Some of the furniture was damaged by the chemicals used by the fire department. The house is insured. T. B. Mumma occupies the residence.

Dr. Mountin Here

Dr. Joseph Mountin, director of rural sanitation in Missouri is here today on a routine visit to the Nodaway County Health Department.

GRIDIRON SEASON CLOSES TOMORROW

and sixteen men will leave here tomorrow in autos for St. Joseph, planning to reach there just in time to eat and get ready for the title game. Only light practice has been the order of the week's training and the men that will uphold the colors of the Maryville High School tomorrow are in as good condition physically as it has been possible in view of the past strenuous struggles. The regular line-up will start the game against the Maysville team. Warren Giles has been secured to referee.

While the proteges of Coach Ebert will be fighting at St. Joseph, H. Frank Lawrence will send onto the Field at Tarkio the best combination he can assemble. The Bear Cats have experienced a varied season and although the slate is not perfect, a win over the Tarkio aggregation will be the finest Turkey Day meal that Captain Foremen and his men could enjoy.

Even though the unexpected happened last Saturday when the Ducks at Chillicothe pulled a win, the men were in somewhat crippled condition. However, tomorrow the pigskin warriers that have been working for "Shorty" Lawrence since early fall have been nursing bruises and charley horses, and it will be a rejuvenated team of Bear Cats that face the Tarks. While no predictions can be maed as to the results of either Maryville game tomorrow, because "dope" this year counts for nothing and has been spilled so many times this year, the hopes of the High School and the State Teachers College will start in the frays with chances to win if the breaks are even.

Many Maryville football fans are planning to witness either the High School or College game. From reports already coming in it is expected that a large delegation will accompany the Spoofhounds to St. Joseph. The High School supporters are asked to occupy the south side of the Western League Park at St. Joseph and the Maysville rooters will be on the opposite side. Those that have been following the Bear Cats say that the Tarkio game will be the best of the year and it is hoped many will help Coach Lawrence's men fight the Tarks.

Other games in the Middle West will attract Maryville people. The annual Turkey Day clash at Lawrence, Kan., between the Tigers and Jayhawkers is a classic affair; the wind-up of the season for the Kansas Aggies and Cornhuskers at Lincoln is a deciding game of the Missouri Valley and the battle at Cameron between William Jewell and Missouri Wesleyan is an attraction.

For those who will spend Thanksgiving in Maryville they can get results of all important games that are played tomorrow at the Democrat-Forum. Reports of the Maryville-Maysville and the Bear Cat-Tarkio games will be available quarter by quarter and a running account of the Missouri-Kansas game will be received by radio from the Kansas City Star by Harry Todd of the Hanamo Telephone Co.

W. E. Goforth, local agent of the Burlington railroad, announced this morning that there will be no special train to St. Joseph tomorrow. Persons desiring to go by rail must take the morning train down and return on the regular train tomorrow night. Mr. Goforth said that the crowds would be divided between Tarkio and St. Joseph and there was an insufficient number desiring a special train to St. Joseph. A majority of the persons attending the championship game at St. Joseph will motor down as the roads are in excellent condition.

Fourteen Bandits Rob Every House in Town

Trunkload Of Silverware, Clothing and Household Valuables Taken From Merrick, Okla.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 28—A truckload of silverware, clothing and household valuables comprised the loot of bandits who robbed the entire town of Merrick, near here, according to reports to authorities here today.

Every house was ransacked and several farmers were held up on the road and robbed when they were returning home after selling their cotton.

Fourteen bandits executed the wholesale robbery.

Convict Walding Is Not Known Here

A dispatch from Jefferson City to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat follows:

A. C. Walding, convict automobile painter in the Penitentiary here, died today from lead poisoning, according to diagnosis by prison physicians.

He was serving a six-year term from Nodaway County for burglary, according to officials at the prison, and was one of the painters in the Penitentiary automobile paint shop.

Records kept by Sheriff Roach failed to reveal any man by the name of Walding being sent to the penitentiary from Nodaway County within the past six years.

Mrs. Enrico Caruso Is Married Today

London, Nov. 28—Mrs. Enrico Caruso, widow of the late Italian tenor, was married today to Capt. E. A. Ingram, a young Scotchman. The Rev. Father John Corbett officiated. After the ceremony was over a small reception was held in a hotel.

One Man Dangerously Injured in Detroit Fire

Detroit, Nov. 28—One fireman was injured, perhaps fatally, another dangerously gassed, a watchman burned, and one person carried to safety in a river front fire here early today. The damage was estimated at $300,000.

A warranty deed was filed today in the recorder's office: Louis D. Bose and wife to Isaac H. McGrath, the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section thirty-six, township sixty-three, range thirty-seven, containing forty acres. $1,200 and other valuable consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Vance and son will motor to Princeton, Mo., to visit over Thanksgiving with Mr. Vance's aunt.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED BY THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.

Renewed Testimony

No one in Maryville who suffers headaches or distressing urinary ills, can afford to ignore this woman's twice told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Maryville resident can doubt.

Mrs. J. B. Kissinger, 901 East 4th St., Maryville, says: "I had been suffering with kidney trouble for some time. I had severe pains through my hips and was tired and weak. There were bearing-down pains in my back and sides and I felt exhausted at times and could not rest well at night. After using a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was greatly relieved, and my health began to pick up."

(Statement given October 2, 1912.)

On March 31, 1920, Mrs. Kissinger said: "I have not had a return of kidney trouble since using Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's cured me and I wish to confirm my former statement."

Drink Water to Help Wash Out Kidney Poison

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

"WATER OUGHT TO BE PURE"—JOHNSON

utilized to heat the water before it goes into the boilers. This saves the city approximately 10 to 15 per cent on coal.

From here the Mayor went outside of the pump house building, which is a brick construction, and told that pipes from the pump house lead underground to the reserve lakes and the settling basins. All the water that goes into the reservoirs is pumped there by the large steam engines or the one large eeletric motor. If the water is clear in the river it is pumped directly to the finish-clearing basin or otherwise called the coagulating basin, but all the while some water is forced into the reservoirs and the reserve lakes are kept at a constant level. The city has two reservoirs or reserve lakes, one which covers about ten acres and the other five acres. However, if the water is muddy, it is sent direct to the large reservoir, or in case the water is too low to be pumped from the river, no water need be pumped from the river for several days. With the two reserve lakes and the two settling basins, the city has a supply large enough to last for two months without a drop of water being pumped from the river, Mr. Garrett said.

Pipes lead underground from the pump house direct to each of the reserve lakes and settling basins. Whenever the water cannot be pumped direct from the river to the finish settling basin, which is the reservoir with the concrete bottom, it is drawn from the settling basins to the finish settling basin and then to the filtering house.

Purifying the Water.

The process involved from the time the water leaves the last settling basin is somewhat as follows:

The water is let out of a pipe to the filtering house where it is purified. Germs in the water, if any are present are killed, from the solution from two coagulating vats. These vats contain alum and lime and the solution is run in the coagulating basin, this having a capacity of 500,000 gallons. The water is run through two filters, each having a capacity of 280 gallons per minute. These filters are composed of five different grades of rock and a layer of Red river sand. They are washed two to three times a day, depending upon the condition of the water. At last the water is put through a final treatment. A third vat, which contains a solution of hypo-chlorate, permits a certain amount to run into the water before it is sent to the clear water well. The clear water well is directly east of the pump house. Here in the filtering house, Scott Johnson, Assistant Sanitary Engineer and Dr. C. P. Fryer, of the Nodaway County Health Department, showed today how the process of purifying the water was accomplished and how the water is tested with acids during the day to ascertain whether or not the proper proportions of purifying element was run into the water. By means of this acid tests the water superintendent, J. W. Qualls, determines every day if the water is properly proportioned with the purifying elements and thus regulates this by the various mechanical contrivances that are arranged in the filter house. Any germs that might be in the water after it is filtered are killed by the hypo-chlorate that is run in. After the water is forced into clear water well it is pumped into the mains which run to the water tower in the city.

Venturi Tube Used.

Mr. Garrett explained that a venturi tube has been installed in the pump house which records how long the pumps are at work during the 24 hours. This summer the city had installed in the water tower, a float, which goes up with the water as it rises in the water tower. This float when it gets within a certain point from the top of the tower makes a contact with a wire which automatically turns on a light on the switchboard in the Hanamo telephone office. When this light flashes, one of the operators pushes a button that blows a horn in the pumping station calling the attention to the mechanic in charge that the water tower is full. This arrangement has been installed due to the fact that the water guage at the pumping station varies at times and is not always accurate in registering the amount of water in the water tower, so that it happened once in a while that the tower overflowed. The tower holds 150,000 gallons.

Reserve Well.

Th Mayor then drove down to the reserve well or fire well, which is located directly east of the fire department. This concrete well holds 360,000 gallons. In case of fire or if anything should happen to the pumping plant that water could not be sent to the tower, the water in the reserve well could be utilized and forced up to the tower by an electrically driven pump, which develops 15 horsepower. This well can also be depended upon in case of a disastrous fire in the city. When the water is turned loose at the well into the mains it brings the pressure up to 90 pounds and with the pump enough pressure can be developed to break the city mains.

Thus, from following the route Mr. Garrett went over and explained, the process that is followed and the machinery that is used in securing water for the city, it is evident that many of the citizens realized that Maryville has a water system that insures safe drinking water at all times of the year and that an ample supply is always at hand.

NEW AMERICANISM MUST BE CREATED

ica, the American people will have to learn of the sovereignty of law."

The speaker then told of the development of the labor movement in this country and what its power will do if not curbed by the workingmen themselves. But there never will be a time in this country when the labor unions can snap their fingers at the American people, Dr. Francis asserted.

"The time has come for the labor organizations of America to leave the leadership of radical European dictators, and get behind a safe and sane American leader," the speaker said.

The lyceum lecturer then told of the equal lack of respect of law among the rich as well as the poor. He told of large banks who defrauded the American government out of thousands of dollars of taxes annually. The laws of our country should be administered to the rich as well as to the poor, and should be administered honestly and equally to all, Dr. Francis said.

Regarding the Eighteenth Amendment, the speaker declared that the controversy that centers this centers around the very integrity of law. It is a question involving the perpetuity of law and should be enforced because it is a part of the Constitution of the United States, Dr. Francis continued.

"When the Constitution, the supreme law of our land, becomes the laughing stock of our people, it is doomed," he said. "If there is something wrong in it, let us change it, but as long as it is there, let us enforce it. What are we going to do with our laws against bank robbing simply because they are broken every day? Are we going to strike them off our statute books? Let us stand up for the enforcement of law."

Relative to immigration, the speaker said that the immigrants should, first of all, be willing to become Americans, and should not conspire against the interests of the American people. If he cannot become an American citizen, he should be sent back to the country from which he came, Dr. Francis added.

"Whatever our politics, our race, our religion, we are Americans first and always," he added.

There must be a practical everyday application of the Golden Rule, if our ills are to be cured, Dr. Francis said. There must be understanding and respect for the rights of others, if we are to live in the greater America of tomorrow, he concluded.

Mary Lou Tells All About A Sale of Dolls At the Christmas Store

Dear Friends:

Christmas! Almost here! Isn't it thrilling? I can hardly wait until that happy day to see what nice little girl I am to call "Mamma."

My name is Mary Lou, you know, and, being the biggest dolly in the store, I've been asked to tell you all about my brothers and sisters.

Honestly, I hardly know where to begin; I have so many relatives, you know. But if you listen real carefully I'll do the best I can to tell you just how nice they all are.

Lovingly, MARY LOU.

THE DRESSED DOLLS
of course, you'll want to see first. My, but some of them have beautiful colthes. Others are dressed in everyday rompers. Cunning! Little dolls, big dolls, dolls that go to sleep — every kind is here. You just must see them.

THE NICEST DOLL
you most ever saw is a beautiful bisque head little lady who can go to sleep and say 'Mamma.' And the pretties hair! She stands 18 inches high. Only $5.98

These sisters are constantly calling for mamma. One is dressed in organdy, has a bisque head, stands 16¼ inches high and has beautiful hair. The other is a big 25½-inch Romper dolly of Sisters. Both wear romeprs and both can say "Mamma." One stands 21¾ inches high an dthe other 19½ inches. It's hard to choose between them.
$4.98

ANOTHER PAIR
$3.98

THREE BIG DOLLS
All waiting for new Mammas. One is dressed in gingham, has a bisque head, beautiful hair and movable eyes. Another had a linene dress and the other is in rompers. They say "Mamma."
$2.98

TWO MORE DOLLS
that say "Mamma" and can walk if you'll help them. One has an organdy dress, the other in rompers. One is 14 inches — the other 16¼ inches.
$2.49

GROWN UP
to be almost a foot and a half tall is this Romper Dolly who walks and talks. Dressed in gingham rompers with separate shoes and stockings. See her.
$1.98

THIS LITTLE LADY
is just waiting to be loved by some nice little girl. She's just exactly a foot high, all dressed up, and has such pretty hair. Don't you want her?
$1.49

WHEN DOLLY
goes bye-bye with her new Mamma, she just must ride in one of these beautiful reed Doll Cabs. My, but she'll be envied by all the other dolls in the neighborhood, particularly if Santa brings your little girl any one of these—

A Fibre Doll Cab is only $3.49
Another Reed Cab costs just $5.49
A Reed Doll Cab costs only $4.49
The Finest Cab of Reed is $6.49
A Cute Doll Sulky costs only $2.25
A Steel Doll Sulky is only $1.98
Steel Go Carts are from 49c to $2.98

Our Christmas Gift to You—
A beautiful Fibre Doll Cab and A Great Big "Mamma" Doll
$4.98

The Doll Cab alone is worth the price we are asking for both. The doll is our regular 14½ inch dollar doll. It's a real buy.

Don't Fail to See This
GREAT BIG MAMMA DOLL
There just isn't any argument—it's the finest Mamma Doll you'll find at the price. Stands 14½ inches high, full cotton stuffed body, separate shoes and stockings, gingham rompers and cap, the best voice made. Compare it with any other doll at 98c

THE SWEATER BABY
Honestly, he's the cunningest thing you most ever saw. All dressed up in a little knit sweater and cap. He wins your heart at first sight. 13½ inches high.
$2.98

CUTE BUNNY DOLLIES
were just made for baby. Made of rubber and hand-painted — they climb right in the tub with Baby. Stuffed with soft aKpex. See them sure.
